Accommodation: Hotel in Phnom Penh

Day 2: Half Day Phnom Penh City Tour - Road Transfer to Siem Reap

Morning

You'll be partaking in a comprehensive city tour that covers the capital's most iconic landmarks.

After breakfast, the tour guide will meet you at the hotel lobby to kickstart the day's exploration. The itinerary includes visits to the Independence Monument, Royal Palace compound, and National Museum.

The morning segment of the tour culminates at Wat Phnom, the solitary hill in the city that harbors sacred sites. For those with an adventurous spirit, there's the opportunity to ascend to the hill's summit, affording panoramic views of the picturesque cityscape below.

Afternoon

Your next adventure involves a 6-hour bus journey to Siem Reap, where you'll encounter even more facets of Cambodia.

At the bus station, you won't have your tour guide with you on the bus, but don't worry, you'll meet up with them in Siem Reap.

During this road trip, you'll traverse through Cambodia's rural landscapes. Along the way, there will be a pit stop at a local restaurant where you can take a restroom break and even order some meals or snacks to refuel.

Upon arrival at the Siem Reap bus station, you'll be warmly welcomed by a local tour guide who will escort you to your hotel in the city center, giving you an opportunity to freshen up.

With some free time in Siem Reap, you can explore the vibrant day and night markets, indulge in Khmer massage and spa treatments, visit a variety of charming cafes and restaurants, or even try a fish massage at your own leisure and expense.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Hotel in Siem Riep

Day 3: Angkor Wat Complex Full Day Tour

Morning

Your journey will start with a visit to Ta Prohm, often referred to as the capital of the kingdom of the Trees. This temple is famous for being embraced by the roots of enormous fig trees and sprawling creepers.

Then pay a visit to Angkor Thom, the last and most enduring capital city of the Khmer Empire. It was established in the late twelfth century by King Jayavarman VII and is known for its impressive monuments.

Afternoon

Continue to explore Angkor Wat, which is not just a remarkable structure but also the heart and soul of Cambodia. Spanning an impressive 200 hectares, it embodies the traditional Khmer concept of a temple mountain.

Following your tour of the Angkor Complex, you'll be treated to a delightful buffet meal at a local restaurant. While you dine, you can savor the artistry of a Khmer Traditional Dance Show, which adds a vibrant cultural dimension to your day.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Hotel in Siem Reap

Day 4: Siem Reap Free Day

It's a free day to explore Siem Reap. You can immerse yourself in the local culture, explore the vibrant street food scene, indulge in a traditional Khmer massage, or even join a culinary class to learn more about Cambodia's rich culinary heritage.

There are optional tours available for you to consider in order to make your time more valuable.

Option 1: Tonle Sap Lake Half Day

Explore the wonders of Tonle Sap Lake, the largest permanent freshwater lake in Southeast Asia. You'll enjoy a scenic boat ride on the lake, witnessing the unique lifestyle of the "floating village."

Option 2: Siem Reap Cooking Class Half Day

Embark on a culinary adventure by joining a cooking class. Under the guidance of skilled chefs, you'll have the opportunity to prepare traditional Cambodian dishes, and you enjoy the meal you've prepared, accompanied by refreshing beverages.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Hotel in Siem Reap

Day 5: Siem Reap Departure

Your incredible journey through Siem Reap and the Angkor region has come to an end. It's time to bid farewell to this captivating city and head to the airport for your departure flight.

If you're tempted to extend your stay and explore more of Siem Reap's treasures, we're here to assist you in arranging additional accommodation. Please don't hesitate to contact us. Goodbye and see you again!
