Itinerary

Half Day: Bangkok Street Eats by tuktuk

A tour guide riding on the tuk-tuk will arrive and pick you up around 19:00 at the starting point Phetchaburi Soi 10.

Here, you can effortlessly find vendors with fragrant food carts as well as small open restaurants, which will attract you with numerous colorful, unique dishes.

- After trying out some local food, the tuk-tuk then rides you to Saphan Khao Market. At this wholesale market, you can find all kinds of fruit, all of which are grown and harvested by Thai farmers.
- Before going to Wat Pho, we will hop off at Phra Athit Road to see Bangkok's Roti, from freshly-baked Roti to uniquely flavourful curries. Enjoy the sweet and savory combined dishes at Bangkok's most famous Pad Thai restaurant
- Next, we continue to Wat Pho, where the gold buildings sparkle magnificently through the night, bringing out the spectacular Reclining Buddha.
- Finally, we will make a pit stop at Pak Khlong Talat, Thailand's largest flower market. What makes it special is that this market only operates overnight.

The tour ends at 23:00 and the tuk-tuk will let you off at Siam BTS Station.
