Itinerary

Full Day: Temple of Literature - One Pillar Pagoda - Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum

Morning

8:00: You will be picked up from your hotel in the Old Quarter and embark on your journey to the Temple of Literature, also known as Quoc Tu Giam, the first university of Vietnam. It was originally a school for princes and royal descendants but eventually changed into a school for high-achieving commoners.

Then, visit One Pillar Pagoda, an important landmark for Hanoians. As you step foot in the pagoda, you can view the surrounding terrain, related with historical imagery as if transporting us to a heroic past to commemorate and be grateful for their outstanding merit.

The Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum is close by. Now, you'll have the opportunity to delve deeper into the life and legacy of President Ho Chi Minh, explore his house on stilts, and gain a profound understanding of this revered figure's enduring influence

NOTE: Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum and Museums is closed on Monday and Friday, so there will be other alternative options if you depart on Monday and Friday

It's lunchtime. Let's relish a hearty meal at a restaurant serving traditional Vietnamese cuisine. Hope it meets your taste!

Afternoon

Visit the Museum of Ethnology - a one-of-a-kind museum devoted to Vietnam's 54 officially recognized ethnic groups.

In this museum, you will have an opportunity to view artifacts, films, and photographs that describe the daily lives, costumes, clothing, and farming implements with customs and habits of many ethnic minorities around Vietnam.

After the enriching adventure, it's time to return to Hanoi's Old Quarter and say bye to our guide.

Our tour will end around 16:30, and get dropped off at your hotel. Thanks for choosing Best Rate Tours! Look forward to seeing you again!
